The Basics

About Wilderness Trek Christian Camp

Wilderness Trek provides faith-based wilderness experiences. We are a backcountry guide service dedicated to leading people spiritually and physically through wilderness areas. Since 1976 we have guided over 60,000 teens and adults in order to help them grow into the people God calls them to be.

What are the Key Elements of a Wilderness Trek Program?

There are 4 main elements of Wilderness Trek you will experience while on your program. No matter if you are backpacking in New Mexico or Colorado, these elements never change.

Grow: Every program we provide will give you opportunity to grow your faith and your skills. Nature is the best place to walk with God and discover God's purpose for your life.

Connect: You will connect with God, God's creation, other people, and your own journey.

Experience: You will have an experience of a lifetime and will experience God's creation. Each program is filled with fascination and excitement.

Challenge: Every program is designed to challenge our spiritual and physical norms and get our faith out of stagnation.

Safety - Our #1 Concern

Wilderness Trek makes every effort to ensure the safety of each individual while offering a range of outdoor experiences with a certain element of risk. The staff is current in Wilderness First Aid or Wilderness First Responder. The staff follow accepted practices of wilderness safety and constantly review every situation to improve response procedures. They also carry satellite devices with them in case of emergency. For our climbing excursions, gear is routinely inspected and our climbing and rappelling guides are certified in the necessary certifications for those activities.

The Area/Conditions

The Wilderness Trek base camp is located in Westcliffe, CO. Elevation can range from 7,200 ft to 14,000+ ft. The air is generally dry and crisp but there can be a lot of variation of weather, even in the summer. Temperatures can range from 30's overnight (depending upon elevation of campsite) to the low 90's mid-day. Rain comes and goes frequently in the summer (typically starting in July), so a rain jacket is necessary. We will be hiking in rocky terrain, so boots with ankle support are encouraged. We are also in black bear country, so we will be taking precautions and educating participants on proper practices such as using bear boxes on our property, and using bear hangs in the Forest and Wilderness areas. Additionally, our staff carry bear spray on overnight backpacking trips.

The Physical Demands

The Wilderness: Not all, but most programs through Wilderness Trek are full-on wilderness immersion trips that may be book-ended with the comforts and privileges of indoor living and fun camp activities. When you are “on trail,” all you have is the support of your team and the life you carry on your back. Prepare to “rough it” -- no shampoo or body wash, no mirrors or plumbing; just sleeping in the mountain air and doing business in the dirt. Life on the trail is a beautiful thing and a once in a lifetime experience for some. We want to prepare you mentally to enjoy your program.

Elevation: People feel the physiological effects of altitude in various ways, including headache, nausea, and increased respiration and difficulty “catching your breath”. In most cases, it will just feel like you are a bit out of shape. We combat the effects of altitude by asking students to start hydrating before you arrive at Wilderness Trek and continue to hydrate well during your stay. We also recommend that you prepare physically for your trip by keeping active at home. It is a good idea to do extra running or walking in preparation for your program. Elevations can range from 7,200 to 14,000+ ft. Be prepared to feel the effects of the higher altitude/lower air pressure. Prepare to stay well hydrated and eat plenty of food.

Backpacking with Wilderness Trek: Pack weight, depending on the type of program and length of stay, can be 30-50lbs., or up to about a third of your body weight. We provide all of the backpacking gear, so we can provide the optimum comfort for your program. However, as much as we can work to make the pack fit your frame and show you how to distribute weight properly, backpacking is an inherently challenging activity. You may be hiking multiple miles and gaining 1,000’ to 4,000’ in elevation during a day’s hike, all while carrying your home on your back. Backpacking exemplifies simplicity and caring for your community to a T, and those tasks are not easy and do not always come naturally to our society of class and comfort. Challenge will be complemented and contrasted with fun activities, relaxing conversation by the fire, and stargazing in the vast wonder of creation we call our home for the night. There is nothing better than being challenged personally, growing as a group, and being worn down physically during the day, then peeling off your socks and kicking back while eating the tastiest trail meal prepared by your friends.

How to Be Comfortable in the Backcountry

Layering: This is one of the best things you can do for yourself, take it from us! Your body temperature will fluctuate as you hike, rest, and relax at basecamp. We recommend layering as follows: short-sleeve, light weight long sleeve, mid-layer(such as a quarter-zip pullover), a warmer layer(like a puffy), and finish it off with a waterproof rain jacket. (Water-proof is not the same as water resistant). For your bottom half we recommend having a pair of shorts and a pair of long pants. If you are more likely to get cold, a pair of long underwear is nice to have for cold evenings and mornings.

Footwear: Bring two pairs! One pair for hiking with high ankle support, are preferably waterproof, and are worn in. And another pair of lightweight sandals or tennis shoes to wear around your tent and camp for the day that allow your feet to breathe.

Hygiene: Little comforts are nice while you are roughing it. Bring a toothbrush and some toothpaste and we will show you how to brush your teeth in the backcountry. Baby wipes are nice for "freshening up" after a long day of hiking. Ladies, bring feminine products just in case! Our female guides can help you with any questions you have while you are out there.

DO NOT BRING

Please do not pack these items for your Wilderness Trek Program:

- Knives or other weapons
- Explosives/fireworks
- Electronics (laptops, game consoles, etc.)
- Tobacco products
- Vapor smoking devices
- Alcohol/drugs
- Firearms

In Regards to Cellphones: Wilderness Trek cannot keep you from bringing your cellphones, but we highly encourage group leaders to take them up until the program is over and assign an adult to take photos for everyone. We want your time here to be devoid of distractions.

FAQ's

What's your base camp address?

Wilderness Trek
1699 Camino Drive
Westcliffe, CO 81252

What is Wilderness Trek all about?

We use adventure as a spiritual catalyst in order to help teens, young adults and families grow into the people God calls each of them to be. As Colossians 1:27 says, "to make known..the glorious riches of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory."

What are the goals of Wilderness Trek?

Our goal is to prepare people and teach them the skills they need to be lifelong followers of Christ and lovers of God's creation so that they may positively impact their families, community and everyone they come in contact with. Every one of our programs focuses on helping people grow spiritually as well as leaders through four key elements: Connect, Grow, Experience, and Challenge.

Where do your programs take place?

Our programs take place in the Rocky Mountains of both Colorado and New Mexico. We utilize many different areas that we are permitted in based on weather, terrain conditions, group size and need, and logistical requirements.

How long has Wilderness Trek been around?

Wilderness Trek began in 1976 when a youth minister named Bobby Woods took 21 9th grade students into the mountains around Gunnison, CO. From the beginning many dedicated people invested themselves and their resources into helping Trek grow. In 1986 Mr. Woods sold the Wilderness Trek concept to a non-profit board of directors making it possible for Wilderness Trek to become a full 501c3 non-profit organization with a board of directors for oversight. Since that time we have worked with many organizations such as Woods and Trails, The Christian Adventure Company, Wilderness Expeditions, and Glorieta Adventure Camps.

Are you the same group from Salida, CO years ago?

Yes. For over 25 years we operated in Salida, CO. In 2012 we moved our operations primarily to Northern New Mexico and in 2018 began partnering with Glorieta Adventure Camps. Wilderness Expeditions, who was a fellow friend in the outdoor ministry, was acquired by Wilderness Trek in 2025 - giving us more permit access in Colorado.

What mountain will we climb?

Because we now work with each group leader to custom design meaningful experiences that fit each group's needs, abilities, and group size, this is a hard one to answer directly. We work with over half a dozen National Forest areas and have permits in New Mexico, Colorado and Utah. Program destinations are chosen one week before each program and factor in group type, group ability, trail availability, forest closures, weather, and several other factors.

I'm a group leader, how do I pay my balance?

Please refer to "The Flybook Registration" section of the Leader Handbook. You will receive a confirmation email from The Flybook that includes a link to your account that shows your balance. It also has all of your paperwork (except for the Medical Release form).

I'm an individual, how do I pay my balance?

If you are coming on one of our individual trips then you should have received a confirmation email once you signed up for your program. The link to The Flybook registration is in that email and you can pay your balance and sign your waiver there. If you are an individual coming with a group, then please get with your group leader. Depending on how your group is set up, you may pay your group leader or pay us directly. Your group leader will help guide you through the process.

What should I do about dietary restrictions/food allergies?

It is important that you let us know of all food allergies and dietary restrictions as soon as possible. We start planning trail and base camp meals two weeks before you arrive at base camp. Everyone is prompted to report these on their health form attached to the waiver. If you already know of restrictions please send us an email.

What should I do with my medications OR my student's medications?

If you have prescription medications or need help with their medications there are a few things you can do to make sure that student is well taken care of. 1) Make sure the medication is clearly labeled with their name. 2) Make sure it is clearly labeled with the dosage amount and times. 3) Be sure to communicate to Wilderness Trek any special instructions or information they may need to know. *Wilderness Trek does not take up or give out medications, but does need to be alerted each time students take their medication.

If we are flying, what airport should we fly into, and do you provide a shuttle?

Denver International Airport (3 hours from basecamp) and the Colorado Springs Airport (2 hours from basecamp) are the two nearest airports. Group Program- We do offer a shuttle service for an additional cost. $1000/15 passenger van (round trip) for the DEN Denver Airport and $500/15 passenger van (round trip) for the Colorado Springs Airport. Arrive no later than 1 pm on the program start date. We will bring you back to the airport at 10 am on the program end date.

What do we do when we arrive at the Base Camp?

There may or may not be someone at the office to greet you as you arrive at the WT Base/Hermit Basin Inn. Either way, give us a call when you arrive and we'll meet you. You will unload and use the bathroom if necessary, we will then jump in to our orientation and get gear handed out for the week and send you off on trail!

What are the facilities like at base camp?

The WT Base is located at the Hermit Basin Inn. There are available bathroom facilities in the Inn, and groups will be tent camping in a beautiful field at the base of the Sangre de Cristo Range of the Rocky Mountains on the 2 nights they are at base camp.

Will there be cell phone service at base camp or in the back country?

There is cell service at base camp, but the quality between carriers can vary. Verizon gets the best coverage. There is no service in the back country. Our staff carries satellite communication devices and are in contact with our base camp staff every day.

Will I have access to WiFi at base camp?

If a leader needs WiFi, we can get you access. Students will not be provided WiFi access.

Should I or my students bring cash for anything?

Students are welcomed to bring extra cash for our base camp store or other miscellaneous items. Our base camp store also accepts credit and debit cards.

What does training for the guides look like?

We begin each summer with two weeks of staff training. Those weeks are packed with trips, activity specific training, Bible studies, policies review, a 14 hour Wilderness First Aid certifications, LNT training, Child Protection and Abuse Awareness Training, background checks, bonding, and a little rest. Training doesn't end when trips begin. We continue to strategically pair guides together, hold regular training, and reassess each guide's knowledge to continue their education.

Can we tip our Wilderness Trek guides?

Absolutely! Our wilderness guides selflessly serve and backpack week in and week out for 10 full weeks. Tipping our guides is a great way to bless them during their time here. They are the hands and feet of our ministry. We highly encourage you to consider tipping your guides.

We're going whitewater rafting; should we tip those guides?

Yes. We partner with Noah's Ark, an awesome company with great guides! Tipping your whitewater guide $5-$10 per person is the average rate. Please help us treat the guides well.

Do the adult leaders count as part of the final number of participants & the price?

Yes they do. Everyone who will be going on a Wilderness Trek program from your group counts in the cost as well as the total group size. Leaders and students will both be provided the same great experience, equipment and life changing trip.

What do the adult leaders do on a group Wilderness Trek program?

If you come with some type of youth group as an adult you have one of the best jobs around! Your role as an adult leader is to develop positive relationships, encourage your group, provide wisdom, and be a positive role model in all you do. Because each teen trip is designed with teens in mind, this means that meals, experiences, and bible studies are all designed around what teens most need. Your role is to be a friend and encourager for the teens. Your role is NOT to supervise, make decisions, take control, be critical, talk negatively or to set a bad example in any way. ADULTS WHO MUST BE IN CONTROL OF EVERY SITUATION ARE NOT ENCOURAGED TO GO ON WILDERNESS TREK AS A GROUP LEADER. Group Programs are about the teens, not the adults.

We define a group leader as anyone over 20 years old that comes with a teen group.

Do I need to be in shape to go on a Wilderness Trek program?

Hiking in the mountains, backpacking, rappelling, rock climbing and many of the events we offer require participants to challenge themselves. Doing anything at 8,000-12,000ft to people from lower elevations is sometimes difficult. We recommend people start walking, working out or being active before their trip and be “in shape”. If you cannot walk 3 miles without stopping on flat ground, you will most likely struggle with a 40-60lb backpack at altitude on uneven ground. While we strive to make every trip attainable for “the average person” and keep our activities appropriate, the reality is some people underestimate the challenge and struggle. Traveling through the mountains is hard (that's the point!). Wilderness Trek is not for everyone but for those wanting a challenge it is a life changing experience.

What about safety and emergency facilities?

Safety is our top priority. All of our full time staff and summer staff have been certified in Child Protection and Abuse Awareness Training and have had over 150 hours of specific training and background checks before they work. Our trail staff also all carry at least a Wilderness First Aid certification which is a 14 hour course as well as training in our emergency operations protocols and policies. The closest medical facility is less than 6 miles away in Pecos, NM with major hospitals located 20 minutes away in Santa Fe, NM. Additionally all of our trips carry satellite communication devices and check in with base camp operations every day no matter where they are. In the event of an emergency these devices also allow us to connect with emergency services quickly from anywhere in the world and at all times.

Can I volunteer with Wilderness Trek?

Yes! Volunteers are a huge blessing to our ministry. We can accept some volunteers around our base camp helping with things like cooking, cleaning, maintenance projects, trail building and office administration. Every volunteer must pass a background check and go through a Child Protection and Abuse Awareness Training. Unfortunately we cannot let volunteers go on trail with groups or lead any activity that requires certifications or training such as rock climbing. If you are interested in volunteering please reach out in advance to our staff directly and we can get the ball rolling
